RUGBY WORLD CUP 2015

One of the main sport events in 2015 was the Rugby World Cup held in the UK. The tournament was held all over the UK and the final was watched by over 120 million people and was staged at Twickenham, Wembley, Millennium stadium and many more. The winners New Zealand went on an unbeaten run to go and win but sadly England lost to Australia and Wales and didn't go through to the knockout stages. They were the first host country to do so. Over the 48 matches that were played there were over 2 million fans and a record attendance at Wembley of 89,019 fans. Runners up Australia also had a good tournament in going unbeaten until the final.

Regents Park were involved in the Opening ceremony and an 'All Schools' visit which meant they got to play on the pitch. There was another visit to Twickenham to watch the new England team train and meet players. Unfortunately the new team captain Dylan Hartley wasn't there!

"It was an amazing experience that I will never forget!"
